Empire Surveillance & Investigations - "Code of Ethics."

Mission statement

To ensure superior ethical standards, expert performance by our investigators, with intent to provide our clients with the highest-quality work product. Make certain investigators conduct themselves lawfully, with integrity and in a professional manor. Maintain the clients anonymity, guard against inadvertent disclosure or theft of private information and to accept responsibility thereof.

- 1) To verify the credentials of clients and that they have lawful and moral reasons to instruct an investigation.
- 2) ESI Investigator will then respect the best interest of our clients by maintaining the high standard of proficiency and reporting to our clients all the facts ascertained whether they be advantageous or detrimental, and nothing be withheld from the clients save by the dictates of law.
- 3) ESI Investigator will conduct each and every phase of every investigation in a fair and impartial manner.
- 4) ESI Investigator will conduct each investigation in a manner that will secure the maximum amount of information, with a minimum of time and expense, in a professional manner.
- 5) ESI Investigator will comply with rules and regulations of federal, state, and local governments, and of other appropriate private and public regulatory agencies.
- 6) ESI Investigator will not knowingly violate any right or privilege of any individual citizen which may be guaranteed or provided by the United States Constitution, any State constitution, or the laws of the State and Federal Governments or any subdivision thereof.
- 7) ESI Investigator will conduct both their personal and official life so as to inspire the confidence of the public.
- 8) ESI Investigator will not use their profession and position of trust for personal advantage or profit.
